4.14 Neither the Seller nor the Agent makes any representations or warranties of any nature whatsoever, whether express or tacit or implied by law, contract or otherwise, and whether or not they induced the entry into this agreement, and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right (common law or otherwise) that it may have to rely on any representation or warranty; it being agreed between the parties that the Sale Assets are purchased on a voetstoots basis and the Seller shall not be liable for any defects in respect thereof, whether patent or latent. For the avoidance of doubt, the Seller neither represents nor warrants the condition of the Assets (including any perishable items that form part of the Sale Assets) nor that the Assets are suitable for any specific purpose. The Purchaser shall have no claim, of whatsoever nature, against the Seller and/or the Agent in relation to the Assets, including without limitation, the transportation, relocation, damage to and/or any consequential loss and/or indirect loss of the Purchaser in relation to the Assets (whether in respect of death, personal injury, damage to property or otherwise). The Purchaser hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right (common law or otherwise) ("Excluded Claim") that it may have to rely on, or institute, any action in relation to the Excluded Claim, unless the Excluded Claim is directly attributable to any criminal or grossly negligent conduct on the part the Seller and/ or Agent.
